

Fay Danene "Dannie" Probert

December 22, 1931 ~ March 17, 2024

Fay Danene "Dannie" Probert was born in Provo, Utah on December 22, 1931. She was the second child of Dan William Probert and Hilda Stewart Probert and was welcomed to the family by her older brother Blake Probert. Dannie passed away on March 17, 2024, in West Jordan, Utah at the age of 92.

Dannie spent her childhood in Ibapah, Utah and attended Ibapah Elementary School through the 8th grade. After attending high school in Tooele, Utah, she took a correspondence course in bookkeeping and secretarial work. Dannie worked as a receptionist and assistant for an eye doctor and a dermatologist. She also worked as a telephone adjuster for AT&T for 20 years until she retired from public service in 1997. Upon retirement, she returned to live in Ibapah where she enjoyed spending time with family and friends.

Graveside services will be held at 1:00pm on Friday, March 22, 2024, at the Ibapah Deep Creek Cemetery.