Pei Chun Wang

September 28, 1986 ~ August 23, 2019

Pei Chun Wang, 32, passed away suddenly on August 23, 2019. She was born as the only child to Nu Khong and Vuong Hue on September 28, 1986 in Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam. She was blessed to marry Alan Ng on September 8, 2013.

Pei was one who loved to try new things. She developed many talents and hobbies as she explored the world around her. Always driven to meet her goals and having a unique ability to find solutions to situations around her, she became a successful entrepreneur and realtor. She loved to travel when she could and try the many varieties of foods as she did. She had a desire to better herself and to be a positive influence in the lives of those around her. She was kind, compassionate and loving, with a special talent of befriending those around her and helping them to feel included. Through these personal qualities, she became a friend and mentor to many. Pei had a love for the arts. She loved singing and had a passion for musicals and theatre, especially Broadway. She loved to showcase her own artistic abilities with her degree in Architecture, decorating and drawing.

Pei had a beautiful outlook on life. She always looked for the best in each day, enjoying all that was around her. She was always looking ahead to the future with positive hopes and dreams and goals to achieve. This mindset helped contribute to her many successes and personal relationships.

Pei is survived by many family members and friends, including her husband Alan, son Leon and mother Nu Khong. She was preceded in death by her father Vuong Hue.

Funeral services will be held on Friday, August 30, 2019 beginning at 10 Am at Larkin Sunset Gardens Mortuary, 1950 East Dimple Dell Road, in Sandy. A viewing will be held just prior beginning at 9am. Interment to follow at Larkin Sunset Gardens Cemetery.