Our beloved husband, father, brother, uncle, and friend, Stephen Charles Crain, passed away on Monday, April 7th, 2014 in Herriman, Utah. Steve was born on March 31, 1955 to Douglas and Harriet Carpenter Crain in Rochester, New York.

A mountain-man at heart, Steve, or "Uncle Seth" as he was nicknamed was the ultimate outdoorsman, explorer, adventurer, prankster, and handy-man. Hunting, camping, fishing, hiking, horseback riding, rafting, and boating were his favorite hobbies. He loved the Rocky Mountains in particular and spent his adult life playing in the Great Outdoors. Steve was blessed with the ability to build, maintain, repair, and fix anything. May his spirit now soar across the Big Sky Country.
