Glen's family moved frequently so he lived in 20 houses during his school years from Michigan to California. He graduated with honors from Turlock High School in California. He graduated from Brigham Young University with a BA in German, then served for 2 ½ years in the Berlin and North German Missions for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Returning to BYU he completed a master's degree in German Language and Literature.

He taught German for 3 years at Ohio University, during which time he married his sweetheart, Bonnie Kathryn Baer in 1969 in the Oakland, California Temple. They moved to Davis, California where he completed a PhD in German Language and Literature. He taught German, English, Linguistics, Religion, and Humanities at San Joaquin College in Stockton, California for 30 years. As a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints he served in many ward and stake callings, including Stake Clerk, High Counselor, Bishop, and Branch President, but his favorite calling was as a teacher. Glen and Bonnie loved to travel, and he organized 21 student trips to Europe with Cultural Heritage Alliance. After his retirement in 2007 he began giving lectures on cruise ships. For the next 13 years he and Bonnie enjoyed 61 cruises as a lecturer, in addition to other travels. In 2013 they moved to Herriman, Utah. They paused cruising long enough to serve a senior mission for the Church in the Family and Church History Headquarters Mission in Salt Lake City from 2015-16, serving in the Family History Library. In his final years he devoted much of his time to genealogical and temple work.

Glen is survived by his wife Bonnie and sons Daniel (Meggin), David, Paul (Amee) and Peter (Jessica), 18 grandchildren, and 8 great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents, sister Joan, daughter Emilee Ellis (David), and grandson Jonathan Ellis.
