

Glenda Gaudig

March 10, 1946 ~ January 9, 2023

Dorothea Glenda Moore Gaudig was born March 10, 1946, in Leicester, England, to Harry and Emily Dorothea (Dorothy) Laraman Moore. She passed away peacefully surrounded by her children on January 9, 2023.

She was the oldest of three sisters. Her family moved many times during her childhood, including a two-year stay in Ontario, Canada- which she stated ‘the winters there were bitterly cold.’

On returning from Canada, the family finally made their home in Nottingham, England. Since she lived there the longest, she called it her hometown.

Glenda attended Trent Bridge Secondary School for Girls, Nottingham, England. She took a course in shorthand and typing, which led to a job with General Accident, Fire and Life Assurance Corporation (GAFLAC).

Glenda found her faith in her lord and savior Jesus Christ and was baptized into The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in October 1963, at the age of seventeen. She served a mission for the Church in the British South Mission, from 1967 to 1969. In 1969, she emigrated independently to the United States, and worked for the Church in President David O. McKay’s office, and the Missionary Department. Glenda continued to have many callings in the Church through her life, including ordinance worker in the Oquirrh Mountain Temple.

Glenda sold her beloved VW bug so she could move back to the UK but was asked to fill in for a work friend on a blind date- which led her to meet the love of her life, Bud Gaudig. They married on August 3, 1972, in the Salt Lake Temple. They had five children, Christopher (Corinne), Meredith (Tim) Anderson, Rachel Moody (Joel May), Lindsay Gaudig and Leah (Tim) Bird. They had six grandchildren, Taylor (Kadee), Makenzie, Corah, Zoe, Van, and Gwen, as well as four bonus grandchildren, Abigale (Arianna), Damian, Rabecca, and Jaxon.

Glenda worked for the Utah Department of Transportation for eleven years as an Administrative Secretary to the Region Two Director. She retired in 2008.

Glenda is survived by her children, grandchildren, and sister Christine Janet (David) Labrum. She was preceded in death by her dear husband and Navy boy Bud, sister Valerie and son-in-law Jeff Donnelson.

Services will be held at 11AM on Friday, January 13, 2023 at the Anthem 4th Ward Chapel, 12352 South Bigbend Creek Drive in Herriman. A visitation will be held prior to services beginning at 9:30AM. Interment to follow at the Wasatch Lawn Memorial Park – South Valley in Riverton Utah.
