

Greg Yates

April 25, 1953 ~ Jan. 21, 2022

One of the last great loyalists has left our hearts broken. Greg Yates from Kentucky passed on his perch, on January 21, 2022. Married to the luckiest woman on the planet for 37 years, Karen Yates on June 26, 1984.

Loyal to his Kentucky roots to the end! He was born to the proud parents Helen and Tommy Yates on April 25, 1953.

No one that has ever lived enjoyed life more than Greg! He has now gone to join his late sister Judy, and his father, as well as the many beloved family and friends that have passed before him!

He leaves his loving mother, who he talked to several times a week for hours! They couldn't have been closer if she lived with us! His wife Karen; his best friend and son Nick, And grateful son Adam; his 6 lucky grandchildren Khyler, McKenzie, Michaela, Khalie, Koen and Kaison, who he loved dearly and unconditionally! Also loving niece Gretchen and family and from Kentucky.

We want to thank the many family members, wonderful neighbors, medical personnel, and first responders for being there until the bitter end!

Family and friends are invited to remember and celebrate his life on Friday, February 4, 2022, at a graveside service at Mt. Olivet cemetery at 11:00 am.
