

Gregory Latham

August 19, 1951 ~ February 24, 2023

Greg Latham, 71, passed away on Friday, February 24, 2023, in West Jordan, Utah. He was born on August 19, 1951, in Montebello, California to Charles and Belinda Latham. Greg sure loved to go fishing, no matter what the weather was like. He served in the Army from 1969 to 1975.

He managed many restaurants for many years, all over Utah. He graduated from Granite High school in1969. He married Cindy Latham. They raised a daughter, Jessie B. Latham, and Greg's son, Brett Latham. Dad had such a sense of humor and loved to tell stories. He had a passion for cooking, water skiing, golf, and hunting.

He is survived by his mother, Belinda Latham; brother, Charles Latham (Vivian Latham); Daughter, Jessie Latham; Son, Brett Latham (Kerrie), Grandchildren; William, Jesire, and Jonathan, Great Grandchildren; Loralai, and Elijah as well as many other family members and friends.

He's preceded in death by his father, Charles Latham, and wife Cindy Latham.

A Celebration of Life will be held at a later date.