

Hans Benjamin Singer

August 14, 1972 ~ December 3, 2021

Friday December 3rd 2021 Hans Benjamin Singer passed away in his home at the age of 49. Hans was born August 14th 1972 in Kamas Utah to John and Vickie Singer. Hans was a transmission mechanic for over 30 years, he was self-taught with most everything and was considered by many the smartest man they knew. Some would even say he was a genius! He is proceeded in death by his father John Singer and survived by his mother Vickie Singer his children Alice, Courtney, Destiny, Alia, Gavin and newly adopted son Drake. Grandchildren Jayce and Donovan singer. His siblings Charlotte, Suzanne, Timothy, Joseph, Israel and wife Gina, and Heidi. As well as many nieces, nephews and cousins. His love for his children and grandchildren was beyond anyone's comprehension. He loved them all more than anything. He had a passion to learn and create. His heart was to sing and dance and most importantly making his own music. Hans taught himself how to play every instrument, except the banjo. However I can promise you he was working on that. His music and his voice was beautiful, his heart and soul, that was more beautiful than anyone could imagine. He was known for his quick wit, his infectious smile and his kind and compassionate spirit. He would give the shirt off his back to anyone who needed it and was family to anyone who needed one. He will forever be loved and missed.

A viewing service will be held on Saturday December 11th at Larkin Mortuary on 260 E. South Temple in Salt Lake City, Utah at 2:00 p.m.
