

Helen Carr Bailey

February 14, 1937 ~ November 13, 2025

Helen Bailey was born on February 14, 1937 in Sunbury, Pennsylvania to James Walter Bailey and Gladys Grace Carr Bailey. She passed through the veil on November 13, 2025 to meet family and loved ones.

Helen had great sense of humor and tried to find humor in all things. She had a great laugh and everyone will miss it.

Helen had a great love of animals and would have adopted them all if she could.

Helen had a talent for baking bread and has a 1st place ribbon from the New Mexico State Fair for her beloved Swiss bread recipe. She was able to pass on this talent to her children and grandchildren. She loved music and loved to sing with her music. Even though she could not read or play music she liked to say she could play the radio or CD player. She was an artist at heart. She loved color and creating things. She could draw, paint, and quilt. Her passion was quilting and was always looking for fabric for her next project. She loved the color purple and always tried to work it into each quilt that she made.

Helen didn't know a stranger; there were only new friends that were yet to be made and loved.

Helen was preceded in death by her parents and both ex-husbands. She is survived by her 3 adult children: Carlyn (Clark) Campbell, Alison Clark, and Timothy Clark(Wendy); her 7 grandchildren; 12 great-grandchildren; her sister Nancy (Bailey) Garni; a nephew and a niece.

A Funeral Service will be held for December 6, 2025 at noon a 5623 Mirabella Dr., Herriman, Utah, 84096.
