

Henry Victor Blocker

December 3, 1937 ~ June 4, 2023

Henry Victor Blocker was born on December 3, 1937, in Omaha, Nebraska, to Arleta and Victor Blocker. He passed away peacefully on June 4, 2023, in South Jordan, Utah, at age 85. Vic served in the Marines for three years as a young man, worked at Boeing for an incredible 42 years, and fell in love at a skating rink. He would soon marry his wife, Ginny, in Anaheim, California, on August 3, 1962.

His hobbies included roller skating, bowling, playing poker, stock trading, watching "Friends," and reporting the national holiday to his Facebook friends based on a calendar he received every Christmas.

He is survived by his wife of 60 years, Ginny; his three daughters, Kim, Terrie, and Laura; his two brothers, Don and Marvin; six grandchildren; one great-grandchild and many other family members in Nebraska and Iowa who love and honor his memory. He is preceded in death by his mother, father, and two siblings, Larry and Linda.
