Claire Elizabeth Fullmer

September 25, 2013 ~ October 2, 2019

Claire Elizabeth Fullmer, age 6, passed away Wednesday, October 2, 2019 at home, embraced in her parent\s loving arms. Surrounded by her siblings, her aunt and her grandparents.

After 3 years of working with a fertility clinic, Claire blessed our lives Wednesday, September 25, 2013 to parents Elizabeth Ann Potter-Fullmer and Dallas Terry Fullmer.

As a vivacious, feral child, Claire was fearless and determined in all her endeavors. Known as our Wild woman, Claire went big in everything she did. From her hair, scootering off jumps and riding bikes. She loved collecting tiny toys which included Hatchimals, LOL dolls and Shopkins. She loved American girl dolls, My Little Pony, Sofia the first, Pinkalicious and unicorns. But most of all she loved just playing with her cousins. She enjoyed shopping at Target and Tj maxx, she was a true maxxinista. She loved all things glittery, pink and girly. She loved stickers and learning how to paint. Her favorite day of the week was taco Tuesday. Her unparalleled style was to play as rough as the boys while wearing her favorite princess dress. It was ironic her favorite princess was Merida from Brave.

Our Claire Bear, our Clair-a-dactyl, our Dink-a-do. Loved cuddling and reading stories. Her favorite was \"Goodnight Unicorn\", gifted by her caregivers from the Proton Center in Seattle, WA. Claire\s strength, faith and fierceness throughout her journey, mimicked the Black Unicorn; which soon became her fighting mascot.

Claire had an infectious laugh and gentle heart that rippled through everyone that was lucky enough to have met her. Her passion and love for life and her family were both contagious and inspiring, even in her silence.

Claire lost her battle 1 year, 5 months after first being diagnosed with medulloblastoma brain cancer. Her fighting spirit continued even through her last breath. She is survived by her parents Dallas and Elizabeth. Her siblings; Aiden, Emmett and Maggie. Her dog Zephy. Loving Grandparents as well as many aunts, uncles and cousins who she loved and adored.
