After a courageous battle with liver cancer, Barney Alvey was called home to heaven on the morning of April 5, 2020 in West Jordan, Utah.Barney was born on June 7, 1936 in Escalante, Utah to Scytha Solena and C. Howard Alvey.He left this earthly life with his eternal wife and sweetheart Shirley at his side. He dedicated his life to the well-being and enjoyment of his family.He loved to travel to his second home in Hurricane, Utah and spent many of his winter months in the warmth of southern Utah.He enjoyed spending time with friends and family at the Alvey cabin in which he built alongside his sons, daughter and grandkids.

He was well known in the auto body repair business and had many friends and associates that he kept close to his heart.He also worked in the home building industry with his brothers.He made many long-time close friendships which included his childhood friends and enjoyed fishing and meeting them on a weekly basis for tea.

He loved the Western movie classics and spent his last years watching his favorite shows such as Wagon Train, Gunsmoke, The Big Valley and many more.This was probably due to his years growing up in Escalante and rural Salt Lake County area.
