

Jacqueline Jorgensen

February 13, 1938 ~ February 3, 2023

Jacqueline Fae Jorgensen passed away in Saratoga Springs, Utah, on February 3, 2023. She was born on February 13, 1938, to Herbert Plewe and Sarah Johnson in Salt Lake City, Utah, and was the oldest of four children. Jackie was married for 55 years to John Christian Jorgensen, who passed away in 2015. They were parents to five children, 20 grandchildren, and nine great-grandchildren.

In her youth, Jackie loved to sing, ski (water and snow), and was active in school activities. She attended East High School and earned a teaching degree from the University of Utah where she was a member of the Delta Gamma sorority. Jackie taught home economics until her first child, Greg, arrived.

After eight years in California, where John had his first job out of college, the Jorgensen's moved to Moberly, Missouri, where they lived for 48 years and raised all five of their children. Jackie was active in the community, serving as a cub scout leader, PTO president, director of the Little Dixie Concert Association, an ambassador for the Moberly Chamber of Commerce, and a member of the Sorosis women's organization. She enjoyed exercising with her friends at the YMCA.

Three years after the passing of her husband, Jackie moved back "home" to her native Utah, where she could be closer to her sister Carol, brother Rick, and daughter Jennifer. She also loved getting together with all the grandchildren who came to Utah to attend college. One of her favorite activities was inviting relatives to her home on Sunday nights so she could cook for them.

Besides her family, the most important thing in Jackie's life was her faith in God. She was a lifelong member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and served in almost every calling available to women in the church. She had an unwavering belief in Jesus Christ and looked forward to reuniting with her husband, John.

Jackie Jorgensen passed away on Friday, February 3, 2023, 355 days into her 85th year. She was preceded in death by her brother Jay and her husband, John. She is survived by her sister Carol Scott, and brother Rick Plewe, both of Salt Lake City, Utah, and all five of her children, Greg of Albuquerque, NM; Brad of Birmingham, AL; Scott of Olathe, KS; Matt of Idaho Falls, ID; and Jennifer Skousen of Saratoga Springs, UT.
