

Jean “Jeanne” (Ashley) Angelos (Thompson)

October 17, 1959 ~ October 4, 2024

Jean “Jeanne” (Ashley)Angelos(Thompson),

A loving mother, devoted grandmother, sister, and friend. An extraordinary woman.

Jean D. Thompson, was born to John and Cheryl Thompson on Oct. 17, 1959. After a valiant five month hospital battle she peacefully passed on Friday, Oct. 4, 2024, just shy of her 65th birthday. She was a strong, intelligent and very independent woman, living life with character determination, and wit. Her presence sparkled, brightening every space she occupied. An inspiration to many. Her spirit lives on in all of us, her influence reflecting the characteristics that shape our personalities. We honor her with love and admiration that words cannot convey. May she rest in peace.

She is preceded in death by her parents and her brother Johnny. She is survived by her children, Tasha (Nic) King, and Tyler (Jazmine) Angelos, her grandchildren, Leilani and Eastin Angelos, her sisters, nieces, nephews and cousins.

A viewing will be held at Larkin Mortuary (260 East South Temple) on October 16th from 6-8pm, with a celebration of life the following day, October 17th, at 11am with a viewing being held prior to the service from 9-10am. Interment to follow services at Salt Lake City Cemetery (200 N St E, Salt Lake City, UT 84103).
