

Jeanne Brock Pulliam

September 13, 1950 ~ December 24, 2024

Jeanne Brock Pulliam passed away on December 24, 2024, in Rowlett, Texas.

Jeanne was born in Preston, Idaho, on September 13, 1950, to Richard Eitner and Lucille Merrill Brock. Her family moved to Salt Lake City when she was two years old. She would spend most of her life there, in later life moving to Texas to be close to family who lived there.

Growing up, Jeanne was noted for her talents playing piano, violin, and viola. She also played guitar, and is remembered for her love of music. Throughout her life, she enjoyed a number of creative arts, including beadworking, jewelry making, and crochet. She was happy when she could share her skills with others, whether making quilts with her father, or hats and socks for newborns. Jeanne cared deeply about animals, including dogs, cats, and birds that played in her yard.

Jeanne taught her children not to judge other people but to accept others for who they are. She was happy that her children each found their own path in life and she was proud of all of them.

Jeanne will be remembered by her children Tony (Darsie) Pulliam, Joel (Maya) Pulliam, Jake (Bethany) Pulliam, Ernest (Amanda) Pulliam, and Alexandra (Peter) Despain; 13 grandchildren; two great grandchildren; and her sister, Kristine (Gary) Sandquist and brother, Stephen (Irene) Brock. Two grandchildren preceded her in death.

Interment Larkin Sunset Gardens.
