

Jennifer “Jenny” Jensen

July 26, 1993 ~ April 30, 2025

Jennifer “Jenny” Jensen passed away on April 30, 2025, surrounded by loved ones, following a cardiac arrest a few days earlier. She was born on July 26, 1993, in Salt Lake City, Utah, to Brad and Teri Jensen. Jenny was the youngest of seven children—and has always been her dad’s “best buddy.”

Jenny excelled most at being a devoted and loving mom to her three young children: William, Morris, and Lucy. They were the lights of her life and brought deep joy and purpose to everything she did.

Full of life, energy, and opinions, Jenny was quick-witted, funny, and strong-willed. She loved time spent “on the mountain” at the family cabin. She loved games, shopping, puzzles, Utah football, and a cold Diet Coke.

Jenny chose kindness, even when it was hard. She took the high road, despite it being expensive real estate (one of Jenny’s favorite lines).

As one of five daughters, Jenny was part of an extraordinary sisterhood that has loved, rallied, laughed, and cried together throughout life.

She was a deeply loved daughter, sister, friend, and — above all — mom.

She is survived by her three children, William, Morris and Lucy; her parents Bradley T. and Teri Lynn Jensen; her two brothers, Trent (Amy) Jensen, Jacob (Candice) Jensen; and her four sisters Heidi (Brad) Bentley, Jamie (Michael) Neider, Jill (Cameron) Clark, and Brooke (Benjamin) Lee.
