

John Chapman

September 4, 1980 ~ January 24, 2025

John McWalt Chapman passed away unexpectedly on January 24, 2025. He was a devoted father who loved his sons immensely and showed that in everything he did. Known for his infectious laughter, endless jokes and contagious smile, Johnny had an undeniable ability to make everyone feel joy and welcomed in any room he walked into. He touched many lives with his compassion and willingness to serve others in need. He was a passionate and avid fan of the Philadelphia Eagles through every season.

His sudden departure has left a profound void in the hearts of all those who knew him and will be greatly missed!

He leaves behind his sons Easton and Braxton, his mother, Kathy and sisters, Jen and Gabby (Merrill). He was an adored uncle to Taedon, Treyson, Monroe, and Lennon.

Till we see you again…FLY JOHNNY FLY!

We love you!
