

Jonathan Olschewski

March 30, 1953 ~ April 21, 2023

On Friday, April 21, 2023, Jonathan Barlow Olschewski was called home at the age of 70. The world has lost a great son, father, brother, grandfather, leader and friend.

Jonathan was born in Salt Lake City, Utah on March 30, 1953, to Afton and Herbert Olschewski. He was the one of eight siblings, whom he loved very dearly and cherished throughout his life. Jon graduated from South High School in 1971. After graduating he worked at his family business, Intermountain Stone and Marble where he accumulated skills and passion for construction. He continued his profession throughout his life as a carpenter and was a master craftsman. He worked on many beautiful homes and projects. With his endless work ethic and meticulous eye for detail, he would provide a beautiful craft that everyone appreciated. He ultimately retired in 2019 but continued his craft by graciously helping others.

After growing up in Salt Lake City, Jon followed his brother Steven to Moab, Utah where they purchased property in Spanish Valley. Steven and Jon continued to live and raise their families on the farm, sharing their passion for preserving their land through farming and gardening.

In 1984 Jon married Shelly Hefner and gained a beautiful stepdaughter, Aubrey. During their marriage they chose to move back to Salt Lake City. In 1991, they welcomed their first son Ashton. After 5 years of living in Salt Lake they made their way back to Moab and, in 1994, welcomed their second son Huston. Jon and Shelly later divorced but continued to stay close in each other's lives.

You always cherished time with Jon, he could light up a room as soon as he walked in the door. He loved to talk to anybody he encountered and simply listen to their story or what was going in their life. Anyone who encountered Jon will always bring up his loving personality and his witty humor. If you needed a warming laugh, he would always do that, and you would walk away still laughing. Jon loved spending time with his family and two sons, whether it was on the farm or some daily adventure for the day. He cherished his friends dearly and loved being able to meet up for their daily coffee at Dave's Corner Market. Within the last year, he was able to welcome his first granddaughter, Tomi Sue.

Jonathan is survived by his children: Ashton (Brinli) Olschewski, Huston Olschewski, and Aubrey Davis. Granddaughter: Tomi Olschewski. Siblings: Eileen Naylor, Steven Olschewski, David Olschewski, Dianne (John) Timpson, Teresa Millsap and Ianthius (Debbie) Olschewski and many other extended family members.

Jon is preceded in death by his parents Afton and Herbert Olschewski, Brother Robert Olschewski, and brothers-in-law Henry Naylor and Norman Millsap.
