

Judith Colleen Berrett

August 17, 1947 ~ February 20, 2021

Judith Colleen Berrett was born in Salt Lake City on August 17, 1947 and died February 20, 2021. She was among six children of Melvin and Vivian Tanner and was devoted to her family and her community. Judy was devoted to her grandchildren, who were the world to her. She was first and foremost a grandmother, always loving and proud of them. She had a passion for genealogy and gave much of her time to researching her ancestors and connecting with other relatives to further this work. She was a devoted member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints and spent many years in faithful temple service.

She is survived by her son Chris Berrett and his wife Summur, and her grandchildren London-Rayn, Bodhi and Jade, her brothers Dale Tanner and Robert Tanner. She was preceded in death by her brothers David and Roger Tanner and her sister Susan Leach. She was loved by everyone and known for her generous and thoughtful nature and commitment to her Savior.

Services will be held at Larkin Mortuary, 3688 W. 12600 S. in Riverton, Utah on Saturday, February 27 at 11 a.m. She will be buried with her parents, Melvin and Vivian Tanner.
