Kaelyn Moore passed away from complications of breast cancer at the age of 59, she was surrounded by her loved ones, on February 23, 2023, in Salt Lake City, Utah. She was born on January 28, 1964, in Sandy, Utah to Fred and Fran Smith.

Kaelyn married David Moore, July 5, 1986. They were married for 33 years and later divorced. They had four children and spent a lot of great memories together.

Kaelyn spent her days fishing, camping, being with family and riding her Harley Davidson motorcycle. She always had the best time in whatever she did, even through her chemo therapy treatments she never hesitated to be picked up on a motorcycle, call her best friend Sherrie, and feel the wind in her hair. Her kids would consistently joke, "she's running the streets again". She had an enormous heart and had a way of making you feel accepted immediately. Kaelyn was spunky, adventurous and never hesitated to tell you how it is. She would reply to a text "fuuuuhhh" or would call you out of the blue, "Hurry. I have an hour, lets go to lunch".

Kaelyn had an insurmountable number of friends both personally and professionally. She worked for Utah Housing Corporation and recently celebrated her 20 year anniversary.

Kaelyn's legacy will be carried on through her children; Vanessa Jones (James), Forrest Moore (Lindsey), Angela Jensen (Cory) and Alexis Moore. She leaves behind her grandchildren and the loves of her life; Presley, Olivia, London and Scarlett.

Kaelyn will be reunited with her "Daddy" Fred Smith, brother Darren Smith, nephews Hesston Smith and Trevor Tsosie.

Kaelyn will be missed beyond words and the position she held in so many lives will be impossible fill. She was tough and fought admirably.
