November 28, 1952 ~ February 4, 2024

Kathleen Ann Stewart Jarvie, 71, of Draper, Utah, passed away at home on February 4, 2024, due to natural causes.

Kathi was born in Nampa, Idaho, on November 28, 1952, to Karl Jones (Jack) Stewart and Wilda Mae Johnson Stewart. She was the third child and first and only girl of the family and was welcomed home by two older brothers, Ron and Jim. Her baby brother, Ken, was born in 1955. The family resided in several small towns in southern Idaho until the late fifties when they moved to Twin Falls, Idaho where Kathi attended elementary school, junior high and high school. Kathi graduated from Twin Falls High School with the class of 1971.

Kathi went on to attend Ricks College for one year and then transferred to Brigham Young University in 1972. She made great friends at BYU and fulfilled her goal of graduating before marrying—by one week! She and her husband, Dave Jarvie, were married in the Salt Lake City Temple on May 6, 1976.

Kathi and Dave made homes in Utah while Dave finished his degree. They were blessed with two children: Amy Michelle was born in 1977 and Robert David in 1982. They spent time together taking care of pets, reading children's classics or watching old classic movies. Many memories were made on family trips to Disneyland or visiting grandparents in Utah and Idaho.

As she was raising her children Kathi worked as an elementary school teacher in districts in Utah, Reno, Nevada, and later Las Vegas. In 1999, she completed a Master's Degree in Education from Lesley University.

Kathi spent her off time devoted to her children and grandchildren. She attended school events, concerts, plays, and any other activity or program they were involved in. She loved her granddaughters and they loved "Nana".

Kathi loved music, reading, flowers, movies, art and animals. She inherited a love of gardening from her father.

In later years, Kathi and Dave moved back to Utah and spent their time together travelling and frequently visiting their children and grandchildren-when they weren't busy on construction projects on the Draper house.

Kathi was a lifelong member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints. She served in various positions in the Primary, Young Women's, and Relief Society Organizations. She put her heart and soul into every calling she had and loved getting to truly know and love the people she served.

Kathi was preceded in death by her father, Karl Stewart, and her mother Wilda Stewart, She is survived by her husband of 47 years David, children, Amy Knight (Gordon) and Robert Jarvie, and brothers Ron Stewart (Tracy), Jim Stewart (Pam), and Ken Stewart (Jan). She will be sorely missed by her four beloved granddaughters: Emma Knight, Elise Jarvie, Grace Knight, and Natalie Jarvie.
