

Kathleen Freeman Angell

September 19, 1948 ~ December 9, 2021

Kathleen Freeman Angell, age 73, passed away on December 9, 2021 in Cottonwood Heights, UT.

Kathleen was born on September 19, 1948 in Salt Lake City Utah, to Earl and Gertrude Freeman. On September 17, 1965, she married Lynn G. Angell, and was later sealed in the Salt Lake Temple. They were married for 56 years.

Kathleen raised her two children, then later worked as a teacher's aid in several local schools. She was an active member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and served as a Primary teacher, teaching the Sunbeams for over 35 years. Kathleen also enjoyed playing the piano, and taught local children in her neighborhood. She loved spending time in the area canyons, and was a strong advocate for preserving the natural habitat.

Kathleen is survived by her loving husband Lynn, her two children – Steven Angell, and Julie (Mat) Hyder, seven grandchildren, and three siblings – Diane (Dennis) Gourley, Brent (Angela) Freeman, and Janine Dowsett. Preceded in death by her parents, and two siblings – Maria (Kevin) Morill, and Charles Anthony "Tony" Freeman.

A viewing will be held on the evening of Wednesday, December 15th from 6:00pm until 8:00pm at Larkin Sunset Gardens, located at 1950 East Dimple Dell Road (10600 South) in Sandy, UT. A memorial service will be held on Thursday, December 16th, at 11:00 am at the Butler Hill Church, located at 2695 East Fort Union Boulevard (7000 South) in Cottonwood Heights, UT. Private internment to follow for immediate family at Larkin Sunset Gardens.
