

Kaye Evans Foss

March 12, 1937 ~ August 23, 2023

Kaye Evans Foss, 86, passed away 23 August 2023.

Kaye was born 12 March 1937 in Downey, Idaho to Carl R. Evans and Florence T. Evans. She received her early education in Downey and in Tooele, Utah, and she followed her parents into a career as a teacher. Having graduated from the University of Utah, she married Carter Foss on 23 August 1959. They made their home in Salt Lake City, welcoming their daughter Catherine Anne on 25 January 1964.

Kaye was an artist, a musician, and a scholar. She wrote beautifully and enjoyed classical music, opera, reading, and making jewelry. Unique and always generous in spirit, Kaye influenced many cherished friends and family members.

Kaye is survived by her husband Carter Foss, her son-in-law Michael Noakes of Seattle, Washington, her brother-in-law Ned J. Stephens of Ogden, Utah and many beloved nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her daughter Catherine and by her siblings Sheila E. Stephens and Jan B. Evans.
