

Kwan Ngan Lui

January 14, 1924 ~ May 15, 2023

Kwan Ngan Lui peacefully passed from this Life on May 15, 2023, in Salt Lake City, Utah, at the age of 99. Born on January 14, 1924, in Indonesia, she migrated to China when she was one year old. At the age of 23, she married her late husband, King Lui. In October 1979, they immigrated to the United States with their children. Kwan and her family settled in Salt Lake City, Utah, where she worked as a kitchen helper until retirement.

Though Kwan valued and found joy in many things in life, there were two things in life that Kwan truly loved: gardening and family. She would spend hours in the garden, growing endless vegetables and fruits. Kwan valued family, centering her life on being a loving wife, caring mother, and attentive grandmother, and recognized the importance of passing traditions on to her children and grandchildren.

Kwan was preceded in death by her beloved husband, King, who passed in July of 1991. She is survived by her 3 children, James Gee Pur (Wai Fong) Lui, Yee Ming (Mun King) Liu, Lian Mei (Bin Liang Xu) Lei; 8 grandchildren, Anita (Gabriel Pereira das Neves) Lui, Bianca (Robert Sargent) Lui-Sargent, Brandon Lui, William Liu, Yu Yun Xu, and Yu Cui Xu, and 3 great-grandchildren Charles Pereira das Neves, Rowen Sargent, and Ender Sargent.

Funeral services will be held in her honor at 11:00 am on Wednesday, May 24, 2023. There will be a viewing prior to the service from 10:00 am – 11:00 am. Services and viewing will take place at Larkin Mortuary, 260 E South Temple St, Salt Lake City, UT 84111. Dedication of the grave following the service at the Salt Lake City Cemetery, 200 N Street E, Salt Lake City, Utah 84103.
