Sarah Pearl Wells

May 28, 2013 ~ February 25, 2017

Sarah "Baby Sayah" \"Salsa\" \"Bug-a-boo\" Pearl Wells, 3, from Sandy was born and instantly adored by all. From her big blue eyes, bright blonde hair, wonderful smile, and infectious laugh, she exuded a vibrance. She had a distinct personality from the start. Sarah always knew what she wanted and had an independent spirit. At only three years old, Sarah could make anyone laugh. Her sense of humor was beyond her years.

Dad, Mom and Asher were her three best friends and they were always together. Sarah had her dad, Randy, wrapped around her finger. He would do anything for her and it was his pleasure, such as taking her on lunch dates, running errands to MetalMart, and braiding her hair. Asher, was Sarah's teacher. She followed her big brother's footsteps in every sense of the word. The two of them were partners in crime. Although she loved her independence, she loved Asher's guidance even more. Sarah and her mom were two peas in a pod. They loved to giggle, huggle, dance, sing and play. She always had her Superman cape on (even at church) and would race around exclaiming, \"I\m a superhero. I save people!\" Her favorite thing to do was say, \"Mom, I\ve got a secret\". She would then whisper in Kristin\s ear \"BEST. MOM. EVER!\" and Kristin\s would whisper back, \"BEST. SARAH. EVER!\" This was always followed by fits of laughter. Every moment they were together they both had a permanent brightness about them. Her happiest moments were spent with her family.

Sarah loved to play with her friends and cousins. She was a threenager, with many boyfriends and lots of spice. Everyone in the family wanted to steal the time with Sarah, to the point of obsession. There was never a dull moment in her presence. Sarah loved the song "I am a Child of God" and always gave the sweetest prayers. She'll always be our bright angel. She is joined in death with her father, Randy and her brother, Asher. Sarah is survived by mother Kristin and her unborn baby sister, Grandparents Marion and Shauna Wells, Uncles Brad (Katie) Wells and Scott (Lindsay) Wells, Aunts Heidi (Darren) Stewart, Alena (Andrew) Johnson, Rebecca (Daniel) Ugalde, and Melissa (Cory) Thellmann, Grandmother Bettyanne (Kent) Bruin, Grandfather John (Debbie) Gillette, Uncles Jonathan (Kylie) Gillette and Daniel (Madison) Gillette, Aunts Malia Gillette, Genevieve Gillette, Hilary (Derek) Cavanaugh, and Kelsy (George) Williamson along with many cousins on both sides.
