Corinne Chatterton Nasella

May 9, 1952 ~ August 1, 2016

Corinne Chatterton Nasella, born May 9, 1952, to Willis Atkinson Chatterton and Thelma Gilbert Chatterton in Salt Lake City, Utah peacefully passed from this life onto her heavenly home and into the Lords hands the morning of August 1st, 2016 at the young age of 64. Corinne valiantly battled various forms of cancer up until the end.

Corinne is survived by her husband: Dennis Michael Nasella, three children: Rachel Amelia Nasella Price, Michael James Nasella, Kaitlin Corinne Nasella, her son-in-law: David Albert Price, two grandbabies: Kearon David Price, Desmond Taber Price, two sisters: Tanya Chatterton, Patrice Chatterton (Kevin) Winn, one brother: Todd Gilbert Chatterton. She was preceded in death by both of her parents and her older brother Timothy Gilbert Chatterton.

Corinne will be remembered by many for her passion of teaching and as a tenacious competitor on the tennis court. She taught the subjects of business, economics and word processing at various junior highs and high schools for 29 years. She finished her teaching career at Brighton High School, where she coached the ladies tennis team to multiple state championships over the course of many years. Corinne unselfishly donated her time and efforts to the Junior League of Salt Lake City and was a proud member of the University of Utah sorority ChiOmega. She was a die-hard fan of the Utah Jazz, a skilled seamstress, typist, pianist, and shorthand writer. She was highly educated, earning her Master's Degree in Business Education from BYU. Corinne was a faithful member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Days Saints and served the church in many capacities throughout her life. Most notably, she was extremely proud of her children and grandbabies and loved them tremendously. She will be remembered as an amazing wife, mother, grandmother, aunt, teacher, coach and friend. We will dearly miss her sincere, patient, kind, loving, and competitive spirit.
