

L. Richard Heward

Sept. 29, 1958 ~ June 30, 2021

L. Richard Heward, our dear husband, father, grandfather, brother, and friend, was called home June 30, 2021, after a hard-fought battle he called “life”. Throughout his life, he had experiences that brought him close to death’s door. But now, he has been relieved of his pain and has finally been made free. We mourn our loss, but celebrate his life and the legacy he leaves behind.

Richard was born on September 29, 1958, to Alma Melvin Heward Sr. and Pauline Lucille Fulcher in Artesia, CA. Growing up, his life was not easy as he had experiences such as being run over by a car, meningitis that almost took his life, a broken home, and the tragic accident that took the life of his father, to name a few. Though he went through all these trials and more, he stayed strong and resilient.

By the age of 18, Richard married Debra Dunn. Together, they had 3 beautiful children: Charity, Benjamin, and Robert. Later, he and Debra divorced. Though complicated aspects of their relationship separated Richard from his three children as they grew up, he loved them and was proud of them.

In 1981 Richard met an angel sent from heaven, and the love of his life, Lyla Jean Eggleston. Their love for each other was unmatched. They were married in 1982 and sealed in the Jordan River Temple in 1983. Together, they raised 4 children: Elizabeth, Jonathan, Julie, and Hyrum. As their children grew, they instilled principles of hard work and honesty in each of them. Richard did all that he could to ensure his children were taken care of and that they could live life independently. Our lives have been richly blessed by his dedication to his family.

Richard was a man of many talents. He was wise and a quick learner. He had many jobs from running a convenient store, working for Pepsi, driving school bus, owning his own towing company, and eventually finding his love of finance and becoming a loan officer and branch manager of Family First Federal Credit Union. As he developed his knowledge and talents, he was always apt to teach and wanted his children and others to know what he knew.

Anytime his children helped with a project, Richard could be found teaching and giving instructions so that one day they would be able to do it themselves. Richard also authored a book, “Personal Finance Simplified”, to help teach others how to manage finances. Though he made no monetary profit from this endeavor, he still felt it was worth his time and energy simply because it could help others.

Later in his life, Richard discovered his love for Ham Radio. He had a passion for this hobby and developed deep and lasting relationships through his radio group, the 76ers. We, his family, thank each one of the individuals who became his friend through this radio group. He spoke highly of each of you, loved you, and considered you the best of friends.

Richard had difficult health problems throughout his life. Those who knew him know all that he went through. Many times, he questioned why he was still here and why God had not yet taken him home. Toward the end of his life, Richard found peace in strengthening broken relationships, making amends, and being a light to those around him. We thank our Heavenly Father for allowing Richard time to do all he needed to do before going home.

Richard was not afraid of death. Rather, he considered this step in his existence a graduation. Dad, we want to let you know, that you have graduated with honors.

Richard is preceded in death by his parents, Alma Melvin Heward Sr and Pauline Lucille Hull.

He is survived by his ever loyal and eternal companion, Lyla Jean Eggleston; his children, Charity (Josh) Kerr, Benjamin Heward, Robert Heward, Elizabeth (Andrew) Laughbon, Johnny (Marcy) Heward, Julie (Donovan) Wilbur, and Hyrum (Zoe) Heward; 20 grandchildren, 2 great-grandchildren; step-father, Glen Hull; sisters, Tambrea (Nixon) John, LourieMae Bloomfield; brother, Melvin (Barbara) Heward; and many nieces, nephews, and cousins.
