He, like his brother Hank, was a humble, hard-working, kind, caring, proud, stubborn Dutchman. Jacob greatest joy was service to others. He would selflessly do anything anyone asked of him. He worked tirelessly for Elias Morris and Sons laying tile and special coatings and at Salt Lake Monument- a division of Elias Morris and Son's for over 30 years and enjoyed every minute of it., followed-by several years at Action Distributing retiring at the age of 77. He always greeted us with "Hello, left us with "I love you", and told us he was "Fine, Fine, Fine." So it's not goodbye, it's we love you and know you're fine, fine, fine.
