

Lee Brandon Neiman

January 12, 1961 ~ August 29, 2023

Lee Brandon Neiman passed away peacefully at home with his wife of 37 years by his side on August 29, 2023.

Brandon was born January 12th, 1961, to Winston Irving and Mary Brandon Neiman in Salt Lake City, Utah, and was married to Rhonda Siebels on July 26, 1986.

Brandon was a devoted and loving husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle and friend. He was a remarkable man who made a positive impact on many lives with his love, kindness, wisdom and friendly out-going personality. Brandon lived a full life and had many talents and interests. He loved traveling with family and friends, was an avid golfer, skier and sports enthusiast, and especially passionate about cheering for the University of Utah Utes football team. He worked at South Mountain Golf Course in Draper, Utah for 19 years. He was also a mountain host at Snowbird Ski Resort for 15 years, greeting guests and making friends from around the world. He will be missed by all who knew and loved him, and leaves behind a precious legacy that will live on in the hearts of his family and friends.

Brandon is survived by his wife Rhonda; children Lance (Laurel) Neiman, and Micah (Zach) Masters; grandson Colton Masters; sisters Barbara Bills and Nancy Neiman; nieces and nephews Patrice (Russ) Batty, Alexandra (Martin) Reid, Christopher (Kenzie) Blamires, Cameron (Emily) Siebels and Alan Siebels, as well as many good friends. He was preceded in death by his parents, and brother Douglas (Janet) Neiman.

A Celebration of Life for Brandon will be held on September 10, 2023, from 3:00 pm to 6:00 pm at the South Mountain Golf Club, where friends and family are all invited. Graveside services will be private.

Rhonda would like to thank all the dear friends and family who offered so much help and support through Brandon’s illness. We’ll miss you Pop Pop.

The family respectfully requests that no flowers be sent.
