February 26, 1943 ~ January 31, 2022

Leslie Boyd Brewer, age 78, passed away peacefully in his sleep, January 31, 2022. He was born February 26, 1943 to John and Theresa Brewer in Mt. Pleasant , Utah.

Dad married our Mom, Sharon Hardman, November 16, 1961. Together they raised their three daughters, Sheri, Kris and Melanie in Millcreek, Utah.

Boyd was an avid fisherman, and kept his pole in the trunk, just in case. He also enjoyed hunting in Mt. Pleasant, where he spent his childhood. He loved bowling and spent many years on different leagues, missing that perfect 300 score by one pin. Golfing was another favorite hobby. After retiring from his tire business, B&R Tire, he worked as a golf Marshal and bartender at the Salt Lake Country Club.

He loved spending time at his daughter's home in Kauai, making lifelong friends there also.

Boyd made many friends everywhere he went. He taught his daughters to work hard, be honest and always have a spirit of adventure.

He was everyone's biggest cheerleader and supporter. He was fiercely proud of each and every member of his family.

He is survived by his wife of 60 years, Sharon, daughters, Sheri (Carey) Middleton, Kris (Mike) Straub, and Melanie (Marvin) Cameron. Grandchildren, Carissa (Rob), Wesley (Summer), Lindsey, Colby (Annie), Kassidy (Garett), Caitlin (Drew), Wade (Jess), Wilson (Whitney), Alessia (Gavin) and Casey.
