

Linda Lee Call

December 10, 1940 ~ August 19, 2025

Linda Lee Call departed this world on August 19th, 2025. She was 84. Born to Lorenzo and Lorraine Dives in Malad, Idaho on December 10th, 1940, Linda married her husband Brent in the Logan Temple in 1963.

Throughout her life, Linda was a devout member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. The strength of her faith was reflected in her acts: She was Relief Society President in three different wards, and continuously active in her church community.

Linda loved her family fiercely, and served as the glue that held them together. Those who were privileged to know Linda were graced by her kindness and generosity – given, as all true gifts are, without expectation of return or reward. In her personal life, Linda was devoted to the arts. She loved music, singing, and painting, along with a particular enthusiasm for all things Elvis.

Linda was preceded in death by her parents Lorenzo and Lorraine, her two sisters Connie and Colleen, her husband Brent, and her beloved son David. Now they are reunited.

She is survived by her siblings: Michael Dives, Nancy Decker, and Larry Dives; her three children: Jeff Call, Kristy Telarico, and Kathleen McKay; as well as twelve grandchildren (Erika, Jenni, Maddison, Katelyn, Emrys, Nick, Justin, Tyler, Andrew, Jessica, Josh, and Emily) and one great-grandchild, Caden. Although we commemorate Linda's physical passing, it's plain that her spirit lives on through them, as each one embodies her beauty, humility, and authenticity.

A viewing will be held at Larkin Sunset Gardens in Sandy on September 1st between 10:30 and 11:45 a.m., followed by a memorial service at noon.
