

Lindsay Dawn Molder

July 28, 1983 ~ September 29, 2022

At the young age of 39, Lindsay Dawn Molder was welcomed home, encircled by the arms of her brother, Tyler. Born in Murray, Utah on July 28, 1983, she would become a beloved daughter, sister, mother, granddaughter, niece, cousin and friend to many throughout her life. Lindsay lost her long battle with addiction on September 29, 2022.

Lindsay loved watching her son Dallon play sports, spending time with her family and shopping. Always ambitious, she was constantly learning new things and looking for new opportunities. She was confident and curious about the world and never afraid to try something new. She had a strong work ethic and was competitive in all things. She exuded energy and drew people to her and her excitement for life. There was never a dull moment with Lindsay around. She had a caring and generous spirit and recognized the need in those around her. She would share with others without judgement, even when she was struggling herself.

Lindsay is survived by her son, Dallon Molder, her parents Matt and Ronie, her brother Brandon, grandparents Mike and Chaunna Zimonja, Thomas and Merdene Lowe, Linda Molder, and many aunts uncles, cousins and friends whom she will be missed by dearly. She is also survived by her boyfriend Forrest Mitchell, and had recently been enjoying getting to know her half-sister Cecilia Archuleta. Lindsay is preceded in death by her brother Tyler.
