

Lisa Dawn Kildoo

June 12, 1960 ~ November 4, 2025

Lisa Dawn Kildoo, beloved wife, mother, grandmother, sister, and friend, passed away peacefully in Utah on November 4, 2025, at the age of 65. Born in Oregon on June 12, 1960, Lisa lived a life full of warmth, creativity, and compassion.

Lisa was everyone’s mom. Her home was a sanctuary, a second home to many, where love, laughter, and comfort were always in abundance. She had a gift for creating safe, welcoming spaces, and her passion for decorating and crafting brought joy to all who knew her. Whether she was scrapbooking or hand-making cards, Lisa poured her heart into every detail. That same warmth and compassion extended into her work at the assisted living facility, where she deeply cared for the residents and their families. Another joy of Lisa’s life was traveling, especially when it meant taking the scenic route and stopping to enjoy little treasures along the way. The mountains always called to her, but her heart was forever tied to the Oregon Coast. After moving to Oregon in 1984, she and her husband spent countless happy years exploring the West Coast, creating memories that their family will cherish forever.

Lisa’s legacy lives on in the lives she touched, the family she nurtured, and the love she gave so freely. Her spirit will continue to inspire those who were lucky enough to know her.

She is survived by her devoted husband, Doug Kildoo; her children, Daffney Sandoval (Rueben), Dakota Kildoo (Katelyn), Daisy Kildoo (Alex Cook), and Dixie Reed (Skyler); her sisters, Jeri Harte (Wes) and Dana Shibley(Jim Roden); and her cherished grandchildren, Miles, Olivia, Delaney, Lucia, Isabela, Margaux, and Sawyer.

A celebration of Lisa’s life will be held on Sunday, December 7, 2025, at 2:00 p.m. at Southeast Christian Church, 1881 Vine Street, Murray, Utah 84121. A reception will follow at the family home. In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to the youth program at Southeast Christian Church in Lisa’s memory.
