

Luis (Paco) Olascoaga

April 6, 1967 ~ April 12, 2025

Paco Olascoaga, 58, passed away peacefully on April 12, 2025, in Salt Lake City, Utah, surrounded by loved ones. Born on April 6, 1967, in Mexico City, Mexico, Paco lived a life full of love, laughter, and purpose. He was a devoted husband, father, grandfather, brother, and friend. He is survived by his loving wife, Seomara Olascoaga; his children, Ramses (Yesenia) and Valeria (Brady); and his beloved grandchildren, Izabella, Santiago, Aileen, and Sophia. He is also survived by his siblings, Aracely, Norma, Sandi, Liliana, and Mario and many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, Yolanda and Jesus, and his sister, Gaby.

For the past 23 years, Paco poured his heart into his career as a picture framer, turning his passion for art—especially nature photography—into a lifelong craft. His work was a reflection of the beauty he saw in the world and the care he took in preserving it.

Paco's happiest moments were spent with his family. He was an avid Atlanta Braves and Dallas Cowboys fan, and he loved escaping to the Grand Tetons to soak in the peace of the outdoors. He also had a deep love for 80s music and good rock. His warmth and humor left a lasting impact on everyone who knew him.

Paco will be remembered as kind, funny, and deeply loving. His empathetic nature, inclusive spirit, and unwavering commitment to those he loved will continue to inspire all who had the privilege to know him.

A memorial service to honor Paco's life will be held on Tuesday, April 15th, at 4:30 PM.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made through a GoFundMe page that has been created in Paco's honor to support the family during this time.

Paco Olascoaga, de 58 años, falleció pacíficamente el 12 de abril de 2025 en Salt Lake City, Utah, rodeado de sus seres queridos.

Nacido el 6 de abril de 1967 en la Ciudad de México, Paco vivió una vida llena de amor, risas y propósito. Fue un esposo, padre, abuelo, hermano y amigo dedicado. Le sobreviven su amada esposa, Seomara Olascoaga; sus hijos, Ramsés (Yesenia) y Valeria (Brady); y sus queridos nietos, Izabella, Santiago, Aileen y Sophia. También le sobreviven sus hermanos, Aracely, Norma, Sandi, Liliana y Mario y sus queridos sobrinos. Fue precedido en la muerte por sus padres, Yolanda y Jesús, y su hermana, Gaby.

Durante los últimos 23 años, Paco dedicó su vida a su carrera como enmarcador, convirtiendo su pasión por el arte—especialmente la fotografía de naturaleza—en una vocación significativa. Su trabajo reflejaba la belleza que veía en el mundo y el cuidado con el que la preservaba.

Los momentos más felices de Paco eran aquellos que compartía con su familia. Era un fiel seguidor de los Atlanta Braves y los Dallas Cowboys, amante de la naturaleza, y disfrutaba especialmente sus visitas a los Grand Tetons. También tenía un profundo amor por la música de los 80s y el buen rock.

Paco será recordado por su amabilidad, sentido del humor y gran corazón. Su naturaleza empática, su espíritu acogedor e inclusivo, y su entrega incondicional a quienes amaba seguirán inspirando a todos los que tuvieron el privilegio de conocerlo.

Una ceremonia para honrar la vida de Paco se llevará a cabo el martes 15 de abril a las 4:30 PM.

En lugar de flores, se ha creado una página de GoFundMe para quienes deseen apoyar a la familia durante este tiempo
