

Lyman Dale Farley

March 29, 1934 ~ Sept. 30, 2021

Lyman Dale Farley passed away September 30, 2021 at his home in Herriman, surrounded by family. Born March 29, 1934, in Carr Fork, Bingham Canyon, Utah, he was the fifth child of Perry Jennings Bryan Farley and Elva Jane Doty.

Lyman married Audrea Eastman on January 30, 1959, in Herriman, Utah. He served in the US Army stationed in Korea, followed by service in the Utah National Guard. He began his career at Kennecott Copper working on the track gang at the Bingham Canyon Mine. He later became a brakeman on the ore trains and ended his career as a welder/boiler maker.

Besides his family, his passion in life was fly tying, fishing and camping. He was also an active member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

He was preceded in death by his parents, two brothers, and a sister. He is survived by his wife, Audrea, two sons, Scott (Debbie) Farley and Jerry (Wendy) Farley, four siblings, Della Briggs, Joyce Lowry, Gene (Janalee) Farley, Sherryl Rosenhan, four grandchildren, five great-grandchildren, and many nieces and nephews.

Lyman was a happy person who always had a smile on his face. He filled the lives of those around him with humor, and the occasion outburst of song.

The family wants to thank Active Hospice; especially Nikki, RN for her kindness and attention through his illness.

A viewing will be from 10-11 a.m. on Friday, October 8, at Larkin Mortuary, 3688 W 12600 S, Riverton, UT (masks appreciated). Private graveside services and interment will begin at 11:30 a.m. at Herriman Cemetery, 12465 Pioneer St, Herriman, UT.
