

Lynne Morrison Heinhold

August 4, 1943 ~ May 28, 2025

Lynne Morrison Heinhold (81) died peacefully at home on May 28th, 2025, surrounded by family after a lengthy illness. She was a beautiful, sweet, caring and loving daughter, sister, wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She had a profound positive impact on many lives, including her brothers and sister, her daughters and son, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren during her 59 years of devoted marriage to her husband, Ken.

Lynne was born on August 4th, 1943, in Salt Lake City to Seare Morrison and Marie Mitchell Morrison. Her parents were gifted musicians whose innate skills were passed on to Lynne. She played the Tabernacle organ while a student of Frank Asper, Tabernacle Organist. She was an accomplished pianist and organist in church and community musical events. She served as Ward or Stake Organist in every ward where she lived. She also enjoyed her assignment as an organist in the Salt Lake Temple.

It was through her music career that she met the love of her life, Ken Heinhold. They were sealed in the Salt Lake LDS Temple on May 20, 1966.

Lynne graduated from East High School, then attended the University of Utah. In her early years, she worked at Primary Children's Hospital as Chief Radiology Technician. Lynne especially loved working with special-needs children.

Her greatest successes and joys were as a dedicated wife and mother. She taught her children the Gospel of Christ, how to work hard, the importance of a good education, and the meaning of "Love at Home." She taught all her children to play piano which greatly enriched each of their lives.

Lynne was an extraordinary partner when Ken served as Bishop of a married student ward at the University of Utah, and when they served as full time LDS missionaries in New York City. She truly loved the Lord.

She will be greatly missed until she is reunited again with her family.

She is survived by her husband, Ken; her children, Debbie Harward (Chad), Becky Timm (Ben), Angie Terry (Matt), and Dave (Emily); 12 grandchildren; 3 great grandchildren; brothers, Mitch and Rick. Preceded in death by her parents, a daughter, Kristen Lee, a granddaughter, Grace Heinhold, a brother, Tom Morrison, and a sister, Gayle Olpin.
