She loved to travel. She went to Hawaii many times, on a few different cruises and loved her time share in Lava Hot Springs. She traveled to see her children in Washington State, Arizona, Texas and South Carolina. She even got to go across country with Bob and Yvette in their lovely semi-truck and to Chicago once with Al when he drove truck for Wycoff.

She will be remembered for her beautiful smile, unconditional love, and fun sense of humor. Mostly she will be remembered as the best wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and friend ever.
