Marcenne Mae Sweigart Calderon, 81 of South Jordan, Utah, passed away peacefully on Wednesday, June 1st, 2022, at Intermountain Medical Center in Murray, Utah.

Marcenne was born June 30th,1940 to Claude and Anne Sweigart in Long Beach, California. After graduating from McClatchy High School in Sacramento, CA, she studied Elementary Education at Sacramento City College, Oakland City College and Brigham Young University, graduating with a teaching credential.

She began teaching mid-year in Orem for a teacher on maternity leave before accepting her first full-year contract in California in the Hayward School District. Her career in education began before and continued after raising two sets of twins. She retired in 2002 from the Ceres Unified School District in California.

She wed Robert Robertson Croft in 1965 and they had four children together. Catherine RoAnne Croft Findlay and Robert Sweigart Croft were born January 13th, 1967 and Rebekah Marcenne Croft Krieger and Rachel Marcenne Croft were born August 14th, 1974.

Marcenne had many talents. She was a phenomenal marimba player and performer in the Bay area in her youth and was well known for her rendition of The Lord’s Prayer. She was a pianist and later took organ lessons to be able to play in church. She was artistic and loved to paint and create flower arrangements.

Marcenne married Jose E. Calderon on January 18, 1997 in the Denver Colorado LDS Temple. Jose was Mom’s sweetheart and constant companion who served her with loving care as her health declined. He stood by her side, adored her and cared for her for 25 years. They moved from California in 2003 and resided together in South Jordan, Utah.

Marcenne was preceded in death by her parents Claude and Anne and her beautiful grand-daughter, Sara Louise Findlay. She is survived by her husband, Jose E. Calderon, her brother, John Mark Wenger Sweigart, her children and their families: Brad and Catherine Findlay (Draper, UT), Robert and Erin Croft (Vancouver, WA), Les and Rebekah Krieger (Parker, CO), Rachel Croft (Modesto, CA), 14 grandchildren, 5 great grandchildren and her sweet fur-baby Mimi.
