Our beloved son, brother, grandson, uncle, nephew, cousin, and friend: Marcus Bryan Taylor, age 38, unexpectedly passed away on Thursday, July 11, 2024.

Marcus was born May 22, 1986 to Ron Taylor and Colleen Millerberg Taylor in Murray, Utah. He attended Jordan High School and graduated from Valley High School. Married Katie Pickering, later divorced. He was a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Marcus is survived by his parents: Ron Taylor (Janneen) and Colleen Shick; his brothers: Curtis, Sean (Sara), and Griffin (Adia) Taylor; step-brothers: Rob (Courtney) Shick and Jordan (Monica) Shick; nieces: Bryton, Jade, and Paityn; nephew: Easton; and numerous cousins. He is preceded in death by his step-father, Robert Shick; grandfather, Keith Millerberg; grandmother, Jean Taylor; grandfather, Roland Taylor; and aunts: Linda Smith and Susie Oxford.

Marcus was known for his mischievous smile and the sparkle in his eyes. To know him was to feel every emotion: happiness, joy, laughter, anger, sadness, compassion, gratitude, stress, anxiety, but most importantly, love. He had a unique outlook on life and lived life on his own terms.

Marcus enjoyed being around his nieces and nephew. He loved them very much, and they, in turn, loved him. They were very lucky to have him as their uncle. Marcus spent many hours watching over Grandma Millerberg and talking to her about her life. Grandma enjoyed the time they spent together.

A Celebration of Life is scheduled for Thursday, July 18, 2024, at 11:00 a.m. at the Larkin Sunset Gardens (1950 East 10600 South, Sandy, UT).
