Anna Marjean "Mimi" Marshall went to be with her Lord and Savior on Tuesday, July 12, 2022. She was born on November 24, 1949, to Rev. Warren D. and Marjorie H. Combs. After spending her childhood in Toppenish, WA, her family moved to Nampa, ID. It was there she met and married her best friend and love of her life Jack Marshall on August 18, 1979. Together they had four children: Michelle, Melynda, Melyssa and Byron and were given the gift of two bonus daughters: Keiko and Danielle and bonus son, Chris. She was the proud Mimi to six grandsons: Eric, Dustin, Jack, Declan, Beckham and Kallen.

In 1982, they moved to Salt Lake City where she was an active participant at Salt Lake Christian Center. Marjean played the piano and organ, sang in the choir, coordinated the church directory, worked with girls ministries, did the costumes for many church plays and organized countless church events.

Marjean knew no stranger and was a prayer warrior. She loved to create opportunities for friends to gather and fellowship together. She was always generous with her time, money and talents.

She is survived by her husband Jack, her daughters Michelle Trombley (Chris) of Glenn Heights, TX, Melynda Marshall of Seattle, WA, Melyssa Marshall of Orlando, FL, her son Byron (Keiko) of South Weber, UT and her brother, Warren (Arnelle) Combs of Athens, GA.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Warren and Marjorie Combs, brothers, Larry Combs and Vernon Combs.

Marjean worked at the Salt Palace Convention center for 30+ years in the Finance Department as a Payroll Clerk. She greatly enjoyed her job and cherished the opportunity to help others. She considered fellow employees as not only her friends but her family. Many of her relationships were maintained after changes of employment and retirements.
