September 17, 1979 ~ February 22, 2025

Matthew David Solorio, born September 17, 1979, in Salt Lake City, Utah, left us far too soon on February 22, 2025. Matthew grew up in Salt Lake City, with brief stints in California and Texas. Growing up, he had a passion for playing sports, especially baseball, and hanging with his brother and cousins.

Matthew attended Judge Memorial High School, graduated from Skyline High School, and received multiple degrees from the Eccles School of Business at the University of Utah. He enjoyed a successful professional career, holding multiple leadership positions in retail and finance. He loved camping, hiking, being with his dogs, listening to music, and especially spending time with his family.

Matthew is survived by his wife, Morgan Clissold, his parents Mario and Teresa, his brother Daniel (Cindy), his daughter Jasmine Paige (Quinten) Aviña, his son Matthew David Jr., and a multitude of aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews.

Services will be held Monday, March 10, 11 a.m. at Larkin Sunset Gardens, 1950 East 10600 South, in Sandy, Utah.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Sandy, Utah, or the Ruff Haven Crisis Sheltering Center for pets in Salt Lake City.
