Ray was born July 27, 1943 in Alton, IL to Wilbert Calvin Bolen and Fern Elizabeth Stolze Bolen. He was the oldest of 3 children. Ray spent his younger years in IL before the family relocated to the Seattle, WA area.

Ray was an avid antique classic car collector. He could usually be found in the garage tinkering with his cars. A few of his favorites included a 1927 Model T, a 1928 Model A, a 1949 Chrysler Sedan, and most recently his 1966 Ford Mustang. Ray loved taking his cars to all the local car shows and loved being in the Parades in the summer.

In his younger years, Ray enjoyed taking the family camping in the deserts of NV where they would ride motorcycles and mine for turquoise and gold.

Ray was usually the "life of the party" and could sit and carry on a conversation with just about anyone.

Ray served 15 years in the Army and was proud to have served his country.
