In Loving Memory of Misak Chouldjian

May 19, 1960 – July 26, 2025

With heavy hearts and profound gratitude for a life so beautifully lived, we announce the passing of Misak Chouldjian, beloved husband, devoted father and grandfather, cherished brother, and treasured member of his community. Misak departed this world on July 26, 2025, at the age of sixty-five, in the comfort of his home in Salt Lake City, Utah, surrounded by the love of his family and the very people who gave his life its deepest meaning.

Born on May 19, 1960, in Yerevan, Armenia, to Svin and Alice Chouldjian. Misak grew up with a powerful sense of perseverance and compassion that shaped everything he touched. He emigrated to the United States at a young age and starting in his teenage years started his pursuit for the “American Dream,” and in every way, he lived it. With wisdom, hard work, and an unshakable devotion to his loved ones, he built not only a successful business but a legacy rooted in love, resilience, and joy.

On May 21, 1989, he married the gem of his life, Ruby Pilossian, in Los Angeles, California. Together they built a life filled with laughter, love, and dedication. Misak is the proud and loving father of Michael, married to Armineh, and Albert, his youngest son. Nothing lit up his world more than spending time with his three grandchildren Amelia, Eva, and Andrei, who knew him as the warm, playful, dancing grandpa who never missed a chance to share a laugh. He is survived by his oldest brother Vahan, and is preceded in death by his parents and his older brother Sarkis.

To those who knew him, Misak is much more than a man, he is a presence. Always the first to lend a hand, share advice, or offer a listening ear, he carried within him a quiet strength and a generosity that uplifted everyone around him. His joy is infectious, his laughter unforgettable, and his ability to connect with people effortless. Whether it is his expert skills with cars, flying down the slopes skiing with his kids, dancing with his grandkids, or sharing daily lunch chats with his daughter-in-law, Armineh. Misak lives for these meaningful moments.

Misak supported Ruby and her students through twenty-nine years of teaching, always making sure she had everything she needed to successfully provide for the children. He has a curious mind, a kind soul, and a heart big enough to hold everyone he loves. He is a father figure to many, a mentor to even more, and a husband whose love is unmatched. Weekend getaways to the casino, passionate debates during hockey games, and those long, laughter-filled family gatherings, these were the moments where Misak came alive. And it is in those moments that he gave his family the greatest gift of all: his whole self.

Though Misak is no longer with us in body, his spirit will forever echo in the laughter of his grandchildren, the wisdom he passed on to his children, and the unwavering love he shared with his wife. His legacy is a living one carried on through the countless lives he touched with his compassion, strength, and endless joy. If you know Misak, you know what a legend he is.

Take a moment today to remember him. Hear his laughter, feel his warmth, and smile with him. We love you, Misak. And we always will.

A funeral service will be held on Friday, August 8, 2025, at 12:00 p.m. at Larkin Sunset Gardens, 1950 E Dimple Dell Road, Sandy, UT.
