Walton Bernard Booker IV

December 1, 1976 ~ October 23, 2018

Walton Bernard Booker IV passed away October 23, 2018. He was born December 1, 1976 in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Walton was kind, loving, and gentle by nature. He loved his family and friends and they all meant so much to him that he would do anything to take care of them. Walton was known for his contagious smile, big hugs, his sense of humor and how much he loved his wife and two sons, Aaron and Axel. Walt was loved by all who knew him.

Walt was employed by L3 Technologies as a Contracts Manager. He was well respected by his colleagues and was a hard worker. He graduated from Park City High School and holds a Bachelor's and Master's degree from Westminster College.

In his spare time, Walt enjoyed working out and being outdoors. He also loved Utah Football, Jazz Basketball, and generally all professional and college sports.

He loved spending time with his sons and coaching their little league football teams. The three were actively engaged in cars and sports together.

Walt and his wife enjoyed beaches, walks and family bike rides, cooking together and just spending time with their amazing friends.

Walton is survived by his wife Rachel Booker, his two amazing sons; Aaron and Axel, his parents; Walt Booker (Jan Lucas) and Bonnie Curley (Tom Curley), his older sister Natalie Sharp (James, Kayla, Alexa, Olivia, and little James), his little brother Joe Booker (Sonja, Vincent, Vivian, and Celine), step brothers; Tyson Lucas (Aubrey) and Jesse Lucas (Dawun).

A visitation will be held on Sunday, October 28, 2018 from 5-7 pm at Larkin Mortuary, 260 E. South Temple, SLC UT. Funeral services will be held on Monday, October 29, 2018 at 12 noon at Larkin Mortuary followed by interment at Farmington City Cemetery. In Lieu of flowers, please send donations to American Foundation for Suicide Prevention (AFSP.org) . For condolences, please visit www.LarkinCares.com.