When Nancy was 2 years old, she moved to Salt Lake City, Utah. She had a brother, David and three sisters, Sharon, Marilyn, and Carol. Her father established two businesses with his brother-in-law: Artistic Lighting Studio and Metals Manufacturing. Her father was a hardworking man who loved his family. He was born in Sweden and moved to this country when he was eight years old after his family converted to the church. He instilled in his children a sense of pride and appreciation for their Swedish heritage. Her mother was devoted to her family and gave loving service to her family, friends, and those in need throughout her life. They are a close family and were always a great source of strength, love and support to each other.

She stayed in Hawaii for 2 months one summer and traveled to all the islands. She took a 5-week tour to Europe and also traveled to the Orient on a seven-week tour. She loved her traveling experiences and gained a greater appreciation and understanding of other cultures throughout the world.

She met her husband, Darrell (Sam) while both participating as leaders in the Young Special Interest Program. They both enjoyed the outdoors, hiking, volleyball, and skiing. They started dating soon after she asked him to dance at a church function. They were married in the Salt Lake Temple on January 27, 1976, and moved to their home on Diana Way. Bryce Canyon Teton National Park and Yellowstone National Park. These trips were full of hiking adventures, being outside and spending time together.

Nancy became Nana when her first grandchild, Isabelle, was born in 2008. Soon after Emma joined the family in 2011. Nancy was a nurturing and caring mother and grandmother, always putting others' needs before her own. Her love knew no bounds and she continuously worked to create a warm and loving home.
