

Nancy Joyce Olson Arbon Fuller

Aug. 19, 1934 ~ Sept. 27, 2021

Our beloved Mom, Grandma and GiGi, Nancy Joyce Fuller, returned to her Heavenly Home on Monday September 27, 2021. Nancy was the first of 12 children born to Les and Reva Olson. She spent her happy childhood in East Millcreek with her 5 sisters and 6 brothers. Nancy graduated from Granite High School in Salt Lake City, Utah and married Donald Nelson Arbon in 1953. They eventually settled in Camarillo, California and together had 4 beautiful children: Donald Olson Arbon (Kathy), Debbie Sue Arbon, David Olson Arbon (Sue) and Diane Morgan (Dave). Nancy owned and operated a successful interior design business, Decorating Center of Camarillo, where her eye for beauty and sense of style shone through. Don and Nancy later divorced, and she then married Alton William "Bill" Fuller in 1977 and they became a blended family with Bill's 4 children. Together they have a daughter Darci Kae (Craig) Cordero. Later, Nancy and Bill left sunny southern California and settled in both Sandy and Riverton Utah. Nancy returned to work at the family business, Les Olson Company, until retirement. In her later years, she lived at Sagewood in Daybreak where she made many dear friends.

Nancy's life touched so many people. She was a force for good and a mentor to everyone; but in the end her greatest joy and happiness was her family. She found purpose and fulfillment in serving all those around her. Nancy's ability to light up a room and make everyone feel important will be missed by all who knew her! Her faith and testimony of Jesus Christ flows through her 5 children, 17 grandchildren, 21 great grandchildren (for now), to carry on her legacy of service and love.
