Wife's Tribute

Dearest Orson, my love, my sunshine, my moonlight….Who would know that 50 years could go by so fast. We met and married only Yesterday, and now it is Tomorrow….

You were my best friend, my love and my teacher. You had many health issues over the years yet you were always right there strong and steady. Master of our home (fixer) of just about anything. You would always say "I can try to fix the problem why not? Besides I can mess up just like anyone else! Or, we will celebrate the success!"

It was a wonderful adventure good family times so many garage sales and flea markets, meeting and dealing with so many friends and customers.

I will miss you more then you will ever know. God bless you and surround you with His Holy Spirit. Rest in peace, finally free and no longer in pain. Until we are together again, I send my forever love and prayers to you.
