

Palla Ann Vaculin

October 15, 1953 ~ June 24, 2023

Palla Vaculin, a beloved wife, mother, sister, and friend, passed away on June 24,2023. She was a devoted individual who touched the lives of many with her unwavering love and compassion. Palla was born in 1953 and grew up in Sandy, Utah where she developed a deep connection with her community.

Palla was a dedicated wife to her loving husband, Patrick Vaculin, and together they shared a bond that was an inspiration to all who knew them. She was a nurturing mother to her children; son, Preston Vaculin and his wife Krissie, and daughter, Kyrstn Knudson. Palla actively engaged her children in their educational pursuits and supported them wholeheartedly in the various activities and interests.

One of Palla's passions in life was her love for horses and caring for animals. She found solace and joy while riding horses. Her compassionate nature extended to all creatures. Palla's gentle touch and warm heart were evident in her commitment to animal welfare and her dedication to providing a loving home for her four-legged companions.

In addition to her love for animals, Palla was an active member of her local church and found fulfillment in singing with the church choir. Her voice was angelic and her melodies filled the hearts of the congregation with a sense of peace and harmony.

Palla's compassion knew no bounds. She consistently demonstrated her care for others by making a point of calling and visiting senior citizens daily. Her genuine interest in their well-being and her ability to brighten their days with her presence brought comfort and joy to those in their golden years.

Palla Vaculin, preceded in death by her father Oscar Levine and mother Cleo Levine (Petersen). She leaves behind a legacy of love, compassion, and kindness. She will be dearly missed by her husband, Patrick, her son, Preston and wife Krissie, daughter Kyrstn Knudson, as well as her sisters, Lois Nelson and husband George (deceased), Rhea Adamek and husband Ron, Judy Levine and brother Jay Levine (deceased). Her memory will forever remain in the hearts of all those who were fortunate enough to have known her.

The funeral service to celebrate Palla's life will be held on July 3, 2023 at Larkin Sunset Gardens, 1950 East Dimple Dell Road at 11:00 a.m. A viewing will precede the funeral from 10:00-10:45. The graveside will be held at Larkin Sunset Gardens at 12:15 p.m. Friends and family are invited to attend and pay their final respects.

May Palla Vaculin rest in eternal peace, knowing that her legacy of love and kindness will continue to inspire and touch the lives of many for years to come.
