Nov. 25, 1929 ~ Aug. 27, 2021

Ralph Hechtle, age 91 peacefully left this earth on August 27 with friends and family by his bedside. He was born November 25, 1929, in Mannheim Germany to Eugen and Katchen Hechtle

He and his family immigrated to Utah in 1953.

He was educated in Germany. His Education also included a degree in music. He was a master baker and furrier. He skilled in woodworking, cabinet making, and home remodeling.

Ralph married Luise Reuter in 1951. They later divorced.

In 1972 Ralph married Dian Stevens Parry. They were sealed in the Salt Lake Temple. Together they had a combined family of seven children.

Ralph loved to sing. His family will miss his annual "Happy birthday" phone call sung with his strong German accent. They will also miss receiving their annual birthday card that he faithfully sent to every member of his expanding posterity.

Ralph was a devout member of the Church of Jesus Christ of latter-day Saints. He worshiped God with both word and deed. He often freely shared his powerful testimony with his family and his ward members. He loved his ward and enjoyed singing in the choir with them.

Ralph had a deep love for temple work. He and Dian spent 1 to 2 days in the temple each week for many years. As Dian's health declined, Ralph continued to serve in the temple faithfully. Ralph also spent many hours daily at his computer doing family history indexing. German names were his favorite to record. He continued indexing until the week prior to his passing. In his daily prayer, Ralph included a plea "to endure to the end in faithfulness". He did just that. His example of serving to the end will live on.
