Becky was a kind, compassionate person, and everyone who met her loved her. She was a smart and talented woman who loved to garden. She had a beautiful garden and an encyclopedic knowledge of plants. She was able to plant and grow anything. She loved roses and spent the last few years learning how to propagate them from cuttings; her collection of rose bushes is over 50. She gave rose bushes as gifts to those she loved. She had a sweet sense of humor and loved practical jokes.

Becky worked at the Sandy library for 30+ years. She loved her co-workers and considered them friends. Becky loved her family and put their well-being before her own. She was thoughtful and considerate, and she was always there when someone needed her.

Becky is survived by her companion, Bob; her parents, Dale (Joe) and Lori; her siblings Jennifer (Ryan) and Joe (Sarah); and her nieces and nephews: Alexias (Josh), Hunter, Alice, Daisy, and CJ.
